Privacy Policy

Fresh Money Limited understands concerns over the privacy of Personal Data.

This policy provides information about what types of information are collected, retention periods and other elements to comply with the EU Wide - General Data Protection Regulation and the UK's Data Protection Bill 2018.

Whilst this privacy policy sets out a general summary of legal rights in respect of Personal Data, this is a complex area of law and this privacy policy is not intended to represent legal advice. More information about rights in respect of Personal Data can be found on the Information Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public>

Key Terms The following terms are used or referred to in this privacy notice – as such it helps to be familiar with these core terms (amended version based on GDPR – Article 4): -

- 'Data Subject' – The individual about who the data is held (you, or your employees in the case of a Company who have asked us to provide services on their behalf)
- 'Data Controller' – company/individual that determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data (typically this refers to us when we market or provide a service to you, and your employer or other third party when they provide personal details about you). Generally, this refers to the individual/organisation that collects the data in the first place.
- 'Data Processor' – Company/Individual which processes personal data on behalf of the controller.
- 'Consent' of the data subject means any freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of the data subject's wishes signifies agreement to the processing of personal data relating to him or her. This is typically used by us to provide mortgage services to you and to keep in touch and/or deal with your enquiry.
